

Are you looking for fulfilling work, and a life of quality in a beautiful area?

Colusa California, one of California's hidden treasures, is a place with outstanding recreation, light traffic, and a friendly and growing community.

The nearby mountains, rivers and lakes offer unlimited recreational activities and limitless fishing, hunting, boating and skiing just two hours away. We also offer many historical, cultural and entertaining activities.

If you are looking for a rural farm setting with advanced technology, this might be the opportunity you have been dreaming about.

Please review our job openings to see if your new career is waiting for you!

Click here for the latest job postings