

The Colusa Indian Community Council is active in charitable giving, economic development, community outreach and sponsoring fun events for citizens in Colusa and the surrounding area.

As we share news of our events and activities, press releases will be listed for your viewing on this page.

